

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER PAGE

I . INTRODUCTION . . ,	1
A. The Nature of the Problem
B. The Need for Study
C. The Significance and the Purpose of Study
D. Theological Framework
E. Delimitation
F. Hypothesis and Assumptions
G . D e f i n i t i o n o f T e r m s
H. Organization of the Rernainder of Study
II. REVIEW OF LITERATURE	18
A. Methaphysical Understanding of Death
B. Death according to a combination between Greek Philosophy and Theology of the Middle Ages
C. Reformers' Worldview of Death
D. Death according to Rationalism and Empiricism
E. Death according to the Modern/Secular Philosophy
G. Many More Western Viewpoints of Death in the last 20th Century
H. Summary and Implication for Present Study
III. THE THEOLOGICAL BASIS AND RESEARCH	49
A. Theological Foundation and the Appropriate Method
B. The conflict between "Twofold Interpretation" and "Theological Monism"
C. A Narrative Approach in analyzing Mankind, Death and Resurrection
1. THE DIMENSIONS OF MANKIND
a. Man, as Body or Flesh from the Visible Aspect
b. Man, as Soul or Spirit from the Jnvisible Aspect
2. THE WAGES OF SIN IS DEATH
3. ESCHATOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES ON JESUS' DEATH AND RESURRECTION
IV. RESULTS AND FINDINGS	91
A. Introduction
B. Discussion on the Results and Findings
C. Conclusion
V. SUMMARY, IMPLICATIONS, AND RECOMMENDATIONS	105
A. Summary
B. Impi icat ions
C. Recommendat i ons	